

Parent Code of Conduct

Let's Create a Positive and Enjoyable Basketball Environment for Our Kids!

As parents, you play a crucial role in setting a positive example for our children. By adhering to the following code of conduct, you can contribute to a positive and enjoyable experience for everyone:

Respect for All

- Positive Sportsmanship: Encourage positive sportsmanship and good behavior from your child and all participants.
- Respectful Behaviour: Treat all participants, including players, coaches, officials, and fellow spectators, with courtesy and respect.
- Support the Officials: Respect the judgment of officials and refrain from questioning their calls.

Appropriate Conduct

- Positive Reinforcement: Offer positive and encouraging words to your child, regardless of the outcome of the game.
- Refraining from Negative Comments: Avoid negative comments or criticisms toward players, coaches, or officials, both during and after games.
- Appropriate Language: Use appropriate language at all times, avoiding profanity or abusive language.

Community and Teamwork

- Teamwork: Encourage teamwork and cooperation among all players.
- Community Spirit: Promote a positive and inclusive atmosphere for all participants.

Additional Considerations

- Zero Tolerance for Abuse: Verbal abuse towards players, coaches, officials, or other spectators will not be tolerated and may result in immediate removal from the facility.
- Coaching from the Sidelines: Refrain from coaching your child from the sidelines. Trust the coaches to do their job.
- Celebrate Sportsmanship: Emphasize the importance of sportsmanship and fair play.
- Enjoy the Game: Focus on the enjoyment of the game and the development of your child as an athlete.

Failure to follow the PrimeTime Parent Code of Conduct may result in consequences, such as temporary suspensions from games or permanent expulsion from our league/tournaments.
